English classes

The ESL program offered by Canada Classroom, in partnership with the Ottawa Catholic School Board, follows the curriculum developed and implemented by our education partners at the Ottawa Catholic School Board. The program is delivered by Ontario Certified Teachers and/or English as a Second Language Teachers, with a classroom ratio of 15:1.

Excursions

Canada Classroom prides itself on offering both local and out-of-town excursions that enrich the ESL curriculum. Our outings provide students with opportunities to apply their English skills in practical, real-world settings through engaging experiences.

Unforgettable Memories

Canada Classroom students immerse themselves in new cultures, form lifelong friendships, and experience personal growth, all while improving their language skills through daily activities and formal education.

The second session will be offered after the first session has been filled.*

Program Highlights

Discover our program:

Discover Ottawa, Canada's vibrant capital, where urban sophistication meets natural beauty. Whether you're exploring world-class attractions, joining lively celebrations, or savoring diverse flavors, Ottawa offers it all in a welcoming setting. From a captivating blend of city life and picturesque landscapes, to year-round outdoor adventures and lively neighborhoods, the Ottawa region stands as one of the world's premier destinations.

At Canada Classroom, we provide more than just a camp experience; we offer a safe, supportive environment where students thrive, explore, and grow. Our programs blend educational activities with recreational pursuits to foster essential skills, ignite curiosity, and create cherished memories that last a lifetime.
